

Here we go!

Everyone's looking for someone who's just around the corner
Everyone's looking for someone who fills out the gap
Everyone's looking for someone who's already done this Everyone's looking for someone who makes the first step

There you are
Saying will you come with me
And I carry you through

And you turn on the lights what a wonderful sight
Saying here we go, we go for the best
And I'm losing my pride as I'm walking inside
Saying here we go, we go for the the best of this life

Everyone's looking for someone who calls when you're lonely
Everyone's looking for someone who is of avail
Everyone's looking for someone who's already holy Everyone's looking for someone who's strong when you're frail
