

My house is still yours

I look around and you're gone
I know that life is a rollercoaster
And I'm not waiting for you
You told me I shouldn't do

You told me you're on your run
Whatever reason – now you're gone
And the hug at the end
Nothing more to pretend
This time it's for real

Wherever you go
Whatever you do
I will be watching over you
Whenever your track
Is leading you back
Here're still a lot of things to do
My house is still yours

Tell me just anyone who knows
I am lost at the edge
I am losing my pads

You told me you're on your run
Whatever reason – now you're gone
And the hug at the end
Nothing more to pretend
This time it's for real
