

What happened when you asked me

1009 feet high
I'm leaving through the window
The distance is what makes me feel afraid
All around me
The skyline of New York
Well I'm not Superman I'm up for this moment
Cause I'm just a kid and I just don't give a shit

And I'm runnin, runnin, runnin, runnin,
Runnin, runnin, runnin

Yeah and I'll make it through the cars and busses
For saving you and I'm not exhausted
The reason you gave me the offer you made me
To take you and take you away

You call me on the phone
And in a moment I'll be coming
You asked me what it is i've got in mind
But all I know is
That healing's on it's run and
It will cover the distance and I'm it's assistance
And you're just a kid so come on hurry a bit

I hate to be alone
You hate to be alone
I hate to be alone
You hate to be alone
